

Making Resilient Disciples in Digital Babylon

Negative perceptions. Church dropouts. It's easy to become discouraged by all that's going wrong when it comes to church and the next generation. Is anything going right? In Faith for Exiles, Barna president David Kinnaman teams up with former Youth Specialties director Mark Matlock to reveal major new research that uncovers what's working—five practices that contribute to resilient faith.

Perfect for Individual Reading or Small Group Study